Palm Sunday

John 1:39... “Come and see” – Jesus

Jo spoke to us on Palm Sunday and invited us again to ‘come and see’ Jesus.

Jesus said that he would be lifted up and would draw everyone to himself – a reference to his impending death at Calvary. John 12:32

The cross is what draws people to Jesus.

As you meet in your groups this week, can I encourage you to make some space for reflection, how can we ‘come and see’ Jesus this Holy week leading into Easter.

You may want to play some worship music, take communion and spend time praying for each other during this time.

- Spend time in worship together listening to the following
‘Open the eyes of my heart’

- Share communion together as a group
Read Matthew 26: 26-29
Simply pray and take the communion emblems together
- What might it mean for us in this Easter season to ‘come and see’ Jesus?

- Why does Jesus invite us to come and see?
- At times in our lives when we have responded to the invitation to ‘come and see’, what has been our experience?
- How might Jesus want us to ‘see’ him today – that may be different from what we expect or want?
- Break into pairs or small groups and share how we are each going to seek Jesus this week? (and not only this week but always)
- Pray for each other
